

Congressional-Executive Commission on China

August 1, 2003

Mr. Doug Cahn
Vice President
Human Rights Program
Reebok International Ltd.
1895 J.W. Foster Blvd.
Canton, MA 02021

Re: Congressional Executive Commission on China's Roundtable: "Codes of Conduct: U.S. Corporate Compliance Programs and Working Conditions in Chinese Factories"—April 28, 2003

Dear Mr. Cahn, Doug,

Thank you for testifying on April 28, 2003, at the Congressional Executive Commission on China's roundtable, "Codes of Conduct: U.S. Corporate Compliance Programs and Working Conditions in Chinese Factories." I enclose a copy of the official transcript of this roundtable.

Your testimony contributed significantly to the Commission's efforts to carry out its legislative mandate of monitoring human rights and the rule of law in China. Your views will inform the Commission's annual report to Congress and the President. The effective functioning of the Commission depends on participation of experts such as you, and we are grateful for your cooperation.

Thank you again for sharing your expertise with the Commission.

Sincerely,

John J. Foarde III
John J. Foarde III
Staff Director

Enclosure—as stated

jf/sp

242 Ford House Office Building
Washington, DC 20515

www.cecc.gov
Phone: (202) 226-3766
Fax: (202) 226-3804

John Foarde
Staff Director